

Team Challenge – 03-21-2025

Azoles are important pharmacophores that come in a variety of substitution patterns. As a team, provide a synthetic strategy that would enable production of the compounds below starting from commercial materials that cost < $3/g. Bonus points go to the team that uses starting materials with the fewest heterocycles. You may use a computer to check for commercial availability.

